

Carleton Ravens – Major Awards – Jack Vogan Memorial Medal Outstanding Graduating Male Athlete

Jack Vogan, or “Jake” as he was known on campus, was a popular and beloved figure on campus known for his easygoing manner and dry sense of humour. Before his untimely death within months of his Carleton graduation, he was the starting centre and co-captain of the basketball team in 1955-56. In the words of Norm Fenn, who coached Jake for two years and knew him well. “As a person and as a player, he is one of the finest individuals I have ever met in athletics.”

The award is presented annually to a female student-athlete who, through activity in Athletics, has exhibited throughout their career at Carleton University, a high and progressive standard of performance, participation and attitude, with emphasis placed on performance.
